AN OLD HOCKEY DRESSING ROOM STORY...

In 2004 when proprietors of Pearl Nicholas & Angela Popoff built Pearl on the Rock they were only 23 years old at the time and had very little money. Nicholas "employed" his beer league hockey buddies to help build the restaurant with promises of free drinks once they opened. It was so busy once they opened and because Nicholas' beer league hockey buddies were not paying he would always put their drinks behind paying customers hence taking 30 minutes to make.

Behold the 30 Minute Caesar was born and has been awarded Vancouver's 2nd Best Caesar.

SCOTCH

ISLAY & SKYE

This region is known for its peaty and strong flavored whisky. The single malts produced here are briny, smoky and extreme due to extremities of the sea that surround the area.

HIGHLAND

The Highlands is by far the largest region in Scotland both in area and in whisky production. Given the expansive area, there is a reasonably wide range of styles from this region from the light and fruity styles of the Southern Highlands to the more spicy and full bodied styles of the North

CAMPBELTOWN

There are only three remaining distilleries that are active in this region- Glengyle, Glen Scotia, and Springbank. Scotches from this region have a heavy sea influence and one can detect the salt and brine as well as the peat that's used in the whisky production here.

SPRINGBANK	10yr	22½
-------------------	------	-----

LOWLAND

Only three distilleries continue to operate in this southernmost area in Scotland: Auchentoshan, Blandoch, and Glenkinchie. The whiskey's produced in this area are considered the most light bodied of all Single Malt Scotches.

AUCHENTOSHAN "THE TRIPLE DISTILLED"	12yr	15¾
GLENKINCHIE "THE EDINBURG MALT"	10yr	21

ISLAND

Scotch from the Islands is typically a transitional style that bridges the wide gap between Highland Scotches and Islay Scotches.

JOHNNIE WALKER BLACK	10yr	14¾

SPEYSIDE

Speyside gets its name from the River Spey, which cuts through this region and provides water to many of the distilleries. Despite its relatively small area, Speyside is home to more than half of the operating distilleries in Scotland. Speyside Scotch is considered to be the most complex and offers sweet aromas and rich flavor profiles
